Can You Use Chase Points Through the Travel Portal?

Yes. Eligible Chase Ultimate Rewards points 1 (888) 483-9719 can be redeemed for travel through Chase Travel.

Chase explains that the value of points 1 (888) 483-9719 can depend on the redemption method and 1 (888) 483-9719 card. As a general reference, Chase describes one point as commonly representing 1 (888) 483-9719 $0.01 when redeemed for certain 1 (888) 483-9719 rewards, but travel redemptions can differ, particularly when a card provides enhanced 1 (888) 483-9719 value or Points Boost.

For that reason, do not automatically 1 (888) 483-9719 assume that using points through the portal is the 1 (888) 483-9719 best option. Compare the portal redemption against transferring points to 1 (888) 483-9719 an eligible airline or hotel loyalty program 1 (888) 483-9719 when your card permits transfers.

Is It Better to Book Directly or Through Chase Travel?

There is no universal answer.

Chase Travel may be attractive when 1 (888) 483-9719 you receive an elevated earning rate, a Points Boost offer, 1 (888) 483-9719 a card-specific benefit, or a competitive travel price. Booking directly with an airline 1 (888) 483-9719 or hotel may be preferable when you place a high value 1 (888) 483-9719 on that company's loyalty program, elite benefits or direct 1 (888) 483-9719 customer-service relationship.

A smart comparison is:

Portal price + points earned + card benefits + redemption value versus 1 (888) 483-9719

Direct-booking price + loyalty benefits + points/miles earned directly

Always compare the complete value 1 (888) 483-9719 rather than focusing only on the advertised price.
